2. Application of occupancy

In principle, selection of residents is made biannually in January and July by the Student Support Division, Academic Affairs Department through the Kyomu-Tanto (Academic Affairs Section) at each faculty. In addition, if there are vacant rooms, you can apply through the Kyomu-Tanto at any time.

3. Other

• Except for Keiteki-Ryo and Sosei-Ryo, lodging expenses and service charge must be paid at convenience stores. (Commission is charged when residents pay in convenience stores.)

• The allocation of rooms is determined by the University. You cannot change rooms or dormitories.

• As each residence has kitchens, residents can cook their own meals.

• There is no parking area for residents in the dormitories. Personal parking in or around the dormitory may be evicted.

- If residents delay in their rent for more than 2 months, they may be evicted.
- Residents are responsible for paying a fee for the lost of their keys, or damaging of equipment.
- Residents of any dormitory can borrow bedlinens. Hokkaido University International House and Sapporo International Student Center residents must pay cleaning charge for bedlinens through the Hokudai COOP. Keiteki-Ryo and Sosei-Ryo residents must pay about ¥4,000 when they vacate. Please consult when you move in.
- Residents of Keiteki-Ryo and Sosei-Ryo are responsible for cleaning up their own rooms and for disposing their personal belongings when they leave dormitory.
- Residents of Hokkaido University International Student Houses are required to pay cleaning fee before vacating. The amount billed will depend on dormitories. Sapporo International Student Center does not charge room cleaning fee if the room is left in a good condition.
- Residents are required to observe the rules and regulations of their residences. Residents who cause serious trouble may be their residency status revoked.
- All dormitories have Internet service. (Also confirm “1. Brief description of each house” about fee.)
- All residents living in Hokkaido University International House or Sapporo International Student Center (excluding keiteki-ryo and sosei-ryo) are required to pay ¥50,000 as a deposit at the time of the first payment,for the final payment and the repair cost of the room in case the repair of the room is needed.
