
I am pleased to inform you that we have launched our recruitment process for the Fall 2015 Prudential Foundation Global Citizens Program. A total of 20 students will be selected from universities in Brazil, China, India, Japan, Republic of Korea, and Taiwan. We look forward to the opportunity to continue preparing our students to become more responsible and civically engaged global citizens while acquiring leadership and professional skills that will equip them to positively impact their communities.

Please find enclosed the Prudential Foundation Global Citizens Program's call for applications and program brochure below. Post the information on your website and send it to your students as you consider appropriate.

1. Call for Applications
2. Program Brochure (Informational Handout) - Please note the preferred interest areas for candidates.

 Due to the increasing competitiveness of the program, only highly qualified applicants will be contacted for an interview. In order to move forward in the selection process, applicants that successfully pass the interview will be asked to complete the comprehensive Washington Center online application that includes the following documents: resume, copy of official transcript, 500 word writing sample, two letters of recommendation, copy of passport, and copy of official English Competency test (unless waived).