

Brush-Up English Program Descriptions

CEED Support Program

July, 2015

Objectives

This program aims to help graduate students and sophomore, junior, senior improve their basic English communication skills. It also encourages them to actively participate in various courses, such as the International Relations Program, using the English skills they have developed. In the program, instructors from external training institutions provide lessons on campus.

Program details

The program offers the following English course where teachers from external training institutions provide small-group classes.

CEED covers some of the tuition. The amount of the tuition is shown as below.

①Speaking and Writing (Instructor : Mr. Stephen Burrow)

The tuition fee to be paid by students is 10,000yen (plus textbook approximately 6000 yen)

A class consists of 6-20 students.

The maximum number of students per class will be 20.

The class will be conducted in English.

Students are to bring a note PC.

Using a TOEFL practice textbook, students are to:

- learn basic ideas about TOEFL-iBT and its structure and strategy for the test.

- practice repeatedly for the test especially on the Speaking and Writing sections.

- take tests on the first day and the last day and be evaluated.

②Summer Intensive English Camp (training institution: Orange Bird)

The fee to be paid by students is 18,000yen (for meals, accommodation, and textbook)

The tuition and other miscellaneous cost will be paid by CEED.

The maximum number of students per class will be nine. We may cancel the camp if the number of application is below six.
